The FIE was founded in Paris in 1913. It has 145 member federations and its head office is in Lausanne (SUI), the Olympic Capital.

The FIE President and members of the Executive Committee are nominated by the FIE Congress, the annual meeting of the national federations. The Executive Committee has 16 members, all of different nationalities, and is composed on one side by the President, elected by the Congress and, on the other, by 15 members, including 3 women, also elected by the Congress. The President of the 5 Confederations recognised by the FIE, is a full member of the Executive Committee.

FIE

The 2008 Congress held in Paris elected Mr. Alisher Usmanov (RUS) as President of the FIE for a period of 4 years.

The same Congress also elected Mrs. Ana Pascu (ROU, M.H.), Max Geuter (GER, M.H.), Velitchka Hristeva (BUL), Ali Youssef Hussain (KUW, M.H.), Peter Jacobs (GBR, M.H.), Emmanuel Katsiadakis (GRE, MH), Guk Hyeon Kim (KOR), Maxim Paramonov (UKR), Frédéric Pietruszka (FRA), Sunil Sabharwal (USA), Feriel Nadira Salhi (ALG), Per Palmstroëm (SWE), Giorgio Scarso (ITA), Omar Alejandro Vergara (ARG), Wang Wei (CHN) as members of the Executive Committee.

Mr. Alisher Usmanov nominated Mr. Maxim Paramonov Secretary General and Mr. Peter Jacobs Secretary-Treasurer.

The Executive Committee then elected Mrs. Ana Pascu, Mr. Giorgio Scarso and Mr. Wang Wei Vice-Presidents.

The Presidents of Confederations are :
Frantisek Janda (CZE), Europe
Celso Dayrit (PHI, MH), Asia

FIE CEO: Nathalie Rodriguez (FRA)

Dear Friends,

As we approach the Summer Olympic Games, I share with you the excitement of all the magnificent fencing we have enjoyed on the path to London 2012. From Olympic Qualification, Grand Prix, and World Cup competition around the globe, to World Championships in Moscow and Kiev, our fencing family is busy and productive in preparation of celebrating the world's greatest sporting event.

The International Fencing Federation has never been stronger than today. With 145 member affiliated federations, our ability to build world interest and excitement for fencing and to reach-out philanthropically to less-privileged athletes is experiencing a fresh and new level of success. Financially, we are fortunate enough to stand strong in the face of a global economic crisis, giving us the opportunity to extend fencing beyond any previous boundaries.

Our efforts to develop and apply innovative technology solutions to fencing helps to make it operate more efficiently and fairly, and to help its image everywhere. We are actively using social media and live streaming to deliver information, images, and video to people virtually instantaneously. Our scoring and tournament management systems are now based on sophisticated networking systems, allowing officials to have immediate results in a venue, instant contact with officials directly from the piste, and integration with official FIE reporting and archiving tools. Wireless fencing, for the first time taking place at the Olympics in all three weapons, has made tremendous strides in the last Quadrennial. Video refereeing, is highly appreciated and considered essential.

The athleticism, refereeing, tournament management, and coaching is also operating at peak performance thanks to these various resources, technologies, and refinements.

In a few short weeks we will be at the Summer Olympic Opening Ceremonies and the results of the last four years will be at its pinnacle. Please share with me the anticipation and pleasure of presenting fencing to the world in a way it has never been seen before.

Alisher Usmanov,
FIE President

Since 1896, the history of fencing and the Olympic Games have been intertwined. The first Olympic Games of the modern era took place in Athens. Nobility, Honour, Respect and Tradition are the key words governing fencing and these were reflected in the Olympic ideal. Thirteen fencers representing four countries participated in the foil and sabre events; epee was not yet an Olympic event. The discipline was entirely male.

1900: The Olympic Games were held in Paris within the context of the International World Fair. 156 fencers representing seven countries participated. Epee became an Olympic discipline.

1904: The Olympic Games were held in St Louis, USA, at the time of the World Fair, but the only fencers from outside the USA to take part were two Cubans and one German.

1906: The Intermediary Games in Athens were intended to be the first of another series of Olympics to be held permanently in Athens halfway through the normal Olympic cycle, but the cost was prohibitive and only one was held. Although 12 countries took part - more than at any previous Games - in 1949 the IOC ruled that they were not official.

OLYMPIC FENCING

1908: London Olympic Games. Foil was removed from the Olympic programme that year because the organisers considered foil fencing to be a graceful and athletic exercise rather than a sport.

1912: The organisers of the Stockholm Games wanted to modify the rules relating to the foil target area. The dissatisfaction this caused highlighted the need to unify the rules in fencing.

1924: Paris Olympic Games. Women's Individual Foil was included in the Olympic programme.

1936: Berlin Olympic Games. The epee electrical apparatus, which had been around since 1931, made its Olympic appearance. Metallic pistes replaced the old cork pistes.

1956: Melbourne Olympic Games. The electric foil, which had been used at the world championships for the first time in 1955, became an Olympic weapon.

1960: Rome Olympic Games. A women's foil team event was introduced.

1988: Seoul Olympic Games. The electric sabre was included; there had been electric sabres since 1986.

1996: Atlanta Olympic Games. First women's epee events, individual and team. Women epee fencers had already competed during the 1989 World Championships.

2004: Athens Olympic Games and first Women's Individual Sabre events.

Fencing became completely mixed, with all three weapons available to men and women, but the team events at women's foil and sabre were dropped to comply with the IOC's restriction of ten fencing events.

2008: Beijing Olympic Games. 212 fencers participated, twelve more than in Athens. There were five men's events (three individual and two team) and five women's events (three individual and two team). Thus, full gender parity was reached in Beijing.

Foil

The foil has a total length of 110cm and its blade is 90cm long. The total weight of the weapon must be less than 500g.

The foil is strike weapon only. Fencers can only score a hit by striking the point of their weapon on the defined target area of their opponent which is limited to the torso only. Non-valid hits will also stop the bout, but will not be counted.

Foil is governed by the rules of right of way. The fencer who starts an attack has the right of way. In order to avoid being hit, the opposing foil fencer will usually attempt to parry the attack and, if this is successful, riposte. To avoid being parried, the attacker may use several tactics, such as disengages or coupés, which are different ways to avoid the opponents blade.

THE THREE WEAPONS

Epee

The epee has a total length of 110cm and its blade is 90cm long. The total weight of the weapon must be no more than 770g. As foil, the epee is a strike weapon only and the epee hit is with the tip of the weapon only. At epee, the target area is the entire body, head to toe, including any clothing and equipment.

Unlike in sabre and foil, in epee there are no right of way rules regarding attacks. Any hit which arrives is counted. Touches are awarded solely on the basis of which fencer makes a touch first, according to the electronic scoring machines. Also, double-touches are counted in epee, although the touches must occur within 40 milliseconds (1/25 of a second) of each other.

Sabre

The sabre has a total length of 105cm and its blade is 88cm long. The total weight of the weapon must be less than 500g.

The sabre's basic difference from the two other weapons is that a hit can be made with the cutting edge and not only with the point. The target area consists of everything above the waist, including the head and both arms.

As foil, sabre is governed by the rules of right of way. The fencer who starts an attack has the right of way. In order to avoid being hit, the opposing foil fencer will usually attempt to parry the attack and, if this is successful, riposte. To avoid being parried, the attacker may use several tactics, such as disengages or feints, which are different ways to avoid the opponents blade.

THE FENCING COMPETITION

The Fencing competition at the London 2012 Olympic Games will be held from Saturday 28 July to Sunday 5 August 2012 at ExCeL in London. The competition will consist of 10 medal events, summarised below:

Men (5)	Women (5)
Individual Epée	Individual Epée
Individual Foil	Individual Foil
Individual Sabre	Individual Sabre
Team Foil	Team Epée
Team Sabre	Team Foil

A total of 212 athletes may take part in the Olympic Fencing competition. This figure includes 102 men and 102 women, with the remaining eight (8) places reserved for the host country with a non-predetermined gender breakdown.

THE RULES

The Fencing competition will be held in accordance with the editions of the following documents that are in force at the time of the Games:

The FIE Rules

available in French at www.fie.ch and in English at www.britishfencing.com

The IOC Olympic Charter

available at www.olympic.org
In accordance with Rule 47 of the IOC Olympic Charter, the FIE will be responsible for the technical control and direction of Fencing at the London 2012 Olympic Games.

Duration and scoring: individual events

At foil and epee, all bouts in the individual events will consist of three (3) periods of three (3) minutes, with one (1) minute between periods, or until one fencer has scored 15 hits. If the third (3rd) period is completed before either fencer has scored 15 hits, the fencer with the most hits will be declared the winner. If the scores are tied after the third period, there will be a further one (1) minute of Fencing time. One fencer will be randomly given priority. The winner will be the first fencer to score a valid hit; if no hits are scored, the winner will be the fencer with priority. At sabre, if one fencer scores 8 hits, there is a one (1) minute break.

Duration and scoring: team events

In the team events, each match will consist of nine (9) bouts, to a maximum of 45 hits. Each bout will last three (3) minutes, or until one team's score has reached the next multiple of five (5) hits: a score of five (5) hits after the first bout, a score of 10 hits after the second (2nd) bout, a score of 15 hits after the third (3rd) bout, and so on. If the ninth (9th) bout is completed before either team has scored 45 hits, the team with the most hits will be declared the winner.

If the scores are tied after the ninth (9th) bout, there will be a further one (1) minute of Fencing time. One fencer will be randomly given priority. The winner will be the first fencer to score a valid hit; if no hits are scored, the winner will be the fencer with priority.

COMPETITION FORMAT

Individual events

All events will be fenced in a direct elimination format throughout.

Individual competitions at weapons with a team event at London 2012 will comprise approximately 36 fencers per weapon and will be run as an incomplete direct elimination tableau of 64. Individual competitions at weapons with only an individual event at London 2012 will comprise up to 32 fencers per weapon and will be run as a complete or incomplete direct elimination tableau of 32.

The initial order of fencers will be established according to the updated and adjusted FIE Official Ranking. If there are fencers qualified who do not appear in the FIE Official Ranking, and/or if there are fencers ranked equally in the FIE Official Ranking, the FIE will carry out a preliminary drawing of lots as follows:

- a drawing of lots for any fencers ranked equally
- a drawing of lots for any fencers who do not appear in the FIE Official Ranking

Once all fencers have an initial ranking, there will be a drawing of lots in pairs for all fencers in the tableau.

Team events

Teams will be seeded according to the Adjusted FIE Official Team Ranking at each weapon. Where teams are ranked equally, a drawing of lots will be carried out.

Teams will be placed in a complete direct elimination tableau of eight (8) or an incomplete direct elimination tableau of 16, depending on the number of teams participating in the event. The teams will retain their initial ranking without a drawing of lots. If there is a host country team, it will be placed in the direct elimination tableau according to its place in the current Adjusted FIE Official Team Ranking at the weapon concerned.

All team events will be run by direct elimination throughout.

Places five (5) to eight (8) will be fenced.

MEDALS AND DIPLOMAS

Medals and diplomas will be awarded in each event of the Fencing competition in accordance with the IOC Olympic Charter (Rule 57: Victory, Medals and Diplomas Ceremonies) and the IOC Technical Manual on Protocol (Articles 5.4.3, 5.4.4 and 5.4.5).

First place

A silver gilt medal, a diploma and an Olympic medallist's pin.

Second place

A silver medal, a diploma and an Olympic medallist's pin.

Third place

A bronze medal, a diploma and an Olympic medallist's pin.

Fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth places

A diploma.

- For the weapons with no team event, only the 2 highest ranked fencers by country and by weapon are kept while all the other names are removed.

REFEREEING

Fencers may ask for a review of a decision by video-refereeing.

Appeals:

- In individual events each fencer has two possible appeals in direct elimination bouts and one in a pool bout. Should the referee agree with fencer who appealed for video-refereeing, the fencer retains his right of appeal.

- In team events, the fencers have the right to a single appeal for video-refereeing per relay and are entitled to retain this right should the referee agree with this appeal.
- In case of an appeal for video-refereeing, the referee will walk over to the refereeing consultant. They will watch the video together and after consultation with the consultant delegate, the referee will give his final decision. No other review of the same action can be requested.
- If the fencer's scores are equal at the end of the match, for the decisive hit, the referee must use the video refereeing.
- The refereeing consultant may at any time request that the referee review his decision.
