

DR. Stacey R. JOHNSON

Dr. Stacey R. Johnson, Chair of the FIE Women & Fencing Council

Dr. Stacey R. Johnson brings more than 30 years of experience in higher education and approximately 20 years of direct instructional administrative experience to Valencia College in Orlando, FL., where she was named Campus President for East & Winter Park campuses in August of 2012. Valencia College East Campus, known as Valencia's Arts & Entertainment Campus, serves approximately 20,000 students each semester and Winter Park serves approximately 3,400 students. Her doctorate is from the University of Texas at Austin in Educational Administration (2007) and her dissertation, "What Works: Factors Influencing Hispanic Female Academic Achievement and Persistence to Graduation," focuses on enhancing Hispanic student success. She holds a Masters of Arts in Communication from Incarnate Word University, additional graduate hours in English Language and Literature and a Bachelor's degree in Journalism/Public Relations from San Jose State University.

Stacey is a U.S. 1980 Olympian in the sport of fencing. She served on the U.S. Olympic Committee's Executive Committee in the 2000-2004 quadrennial. She was the first woman in U.S. Fencing's 125-year history to hold a four-year term as President. Stacey worked vigorously internationally to bring equity to women in fencing and this was achieved when women fencers were allowed for the first time to compete in all the same disciplines as men by the inclusion of the Women's Saber event in the Athens Olympic Games in 2004. As an athlete, she competed on two World University Games Teams 1977 and 1979, was a member of three Jr. World Teams 1973-1975, was a five-time U.S. National Team Championship individual finalist 1974, 1977-79, 1982 and was a three-time U.S. National Team Champion 1974, 1976-1977. She has been inducted in the U.S. Fencing Hall of Fame (2011), in the San Antonio Sports Hall of Fame (2005), in the San Jose State University Hall of Fame (2003), and in the San Antonio Women's Hall of Fame (1997).

Veena GUNPUT (MRI)

Of Mauritian origin, Veena became involved in fencing when her son picked up an épée some 10 years ago. Since then, her connection with the sport has progressed from attending competitions to organising training. She played a key role in promoting the establishment of a fencing federation in Mauritius, a country which previously had no history in this sport. Having the benefit of a non traditional vantage point of the sport, she is committed to the progression of women in fencing throughout the world. In addition, with her African roots, she feels very strongly about contributing to the growth of fencing across the African continent. Holding a Masters in Geography (Bristol, UK), Veena works as a contract manager for a pan European company
