THE FIE

Today, the FIE has 150 member federations and its head office is in Lausanne (SUI), the Olympic Capital. At the FIE Elective Congress held in Moscow (RUS) in December 2012, Mr Alisher Usmanov (RUS) was re-elected as President to lead the federation until 2016.

He has been the FIE President since 2008. Mr Usmanov appointed Mr Frédéric Pietruszka (FRA) as Secretary General and Mr Jacek Bierkowski (POL) as Secretary Treasurer. The Vice-Presidents are Ana Pascu (M.H.) (ROU), Giorgio Scarso (ITA) and Wang Wei (CHN). The major objectives of the FIE 2012-2016 are:

- To actively promote the development of fencing throughout the world
- To establish fencing as a global sport and media product

The means to reach this aim is to continue giving financial and organisational assistance to confederations and national federations. The FIE conducts and finances administration courses, coaches training courses, athletes training camps and distributes equipment. In addition, the FIE continues to enhance the visual appeal of the sport and to make fencing more accessible to a broader audience.

FIE GOVERNANCE

The FIE is governed by the FIE Executive Committee which is composed of 22 members. Sixteen members including the President are elected by the FIE Electoral Congress which takes place every four years. The FIE statutes provide that they all have to be of different nationalities and that at least 30% of the members be women. The President of each of the five continental Confederations recognised by the FIE is also a full member of the Executive Committee.

DEAR FRIENDS

It is a pleasure to welcome you to the 2016 Cadet and Junior World Championships in Bourges in France. Over ten days, the world's best young fencers will meet here to showcase their talent and delight us with exciting matches.

The Cadet and Junior World Championships are one of the most important events in the FIE calendar in the Olympic year 2016 as they provide young fencers with the opportunity to compete in a unique framework. Top-level fencing, as well as meeting young aspiring peers from all over the world and experiencing diversity are the characteristics of a Cadet and Junior World Championship.

The FIE is proud to acknowledge that this diversity continues to grow, especially in cadet and junior fencing, allowing new techniques, styles and athletic talents to emerge and challenge traditional ways. I am sure that these World Championships will be no different and I am looking forward to many exciting bouts and magnificent surprises.

On behalf of the FIE, I would like to thank the organizers and the state authorities for their valuable support and efforts to make these World Championships a success. I wish you all a wonderful and memorable Cadet and Junior World Championships.

Alisher Usmanov
FIE President

THE CITY OF BOURGES

Bourges is a city in central France on the Yèvre river. It is the capital of the department of Cher and was also the capital of the former province of Berry. The late Roman city featured a monumental gate, aqueducts, thermae and an amphitheatre, with massive surrounding walls.

Bourges is also the seat of an archbishopric – the third-century Saint Ursin is considered the first bishop of the city. The Gothic Cathedral of Saint Etienne, begun at the end of the 12th century, ranks as a World Heritage Site. It is considered the earliest example of the High Gothic style of the 13th century.

The future king of France, Charles VII, sought refuge in Bourges during the Hundred Years' War and his son, Louis XI, was born there in 1423. The city has a long tradition of art and history. Apart from the cathedral, other sites of importance include the 15th-century Palace of Jacques Cœur and a 65-hectare district of half-timbered houses and fine town-houses.

The railway station offers direct connections to Paris (two hours), Orléans, Tours, Lyon and several regional destinations. The A71 motorway connects Bourges with Orléans and Clermont-Ferrand. Bourges Airport is a small regional airport.

The principal football team is Bourges Football 18. It is also home to the women's basketball club CJM Bourges Basket, which has won multiple titles in domestic and European basketball. Bourges XV is the premier rugby union team in the region.

Colleges and universities include the University of Bourges, where John Calvin studied, the École des Beaux Arts, and Ecole Nationale Supérieure d'Ingénieurs ENSI. Bourges is twinned with, among others, Augsburg (GER), Aveiro (POR), Peterborough (GBR) and Yoshkar-Ola (RUS).

THE RULES

INDIVIDUAL EVENTS

Duration and scoring:

At foil and epee, all bouts in the individual events consist of three periods of three minutes, with one minute between periods, or the bout lasts until one fencer has scored 15 hits. If the third period is completed before either fencer has scored 15 hits, the fencer with the most hits is declared the winner. If the scores are tied after the third period, there is a further one minute of fencing time. One fencer is randomly given priority.

The winner is the first fencer who scores a valid hit; if no hits are scored, the winner is the fencer with priority.

In sabre, there is a one-minute break after one fencer has scored eight hits. After this break, the bout is resumed until one fencer has scored 15 hits.

TEAM EVENTS

Duration and scoring:

In the team events, each match consists of nine bouts of three minutes each, to a maximum of 45 hits. Each bout lasts three minutes, or until one team's score has reached the next multiple of five hits: a score of 5 hits after the first bout, a score of 10 hits after the second bout, a score of 15 hits after the third bout, and so on. If in the ninth bout the time elapses before either team has scored 45 hits, the team with the most hits is declared winner.

If the score is tied after the ninth bout, there is a further one minute of fencing time. One team is randomly given priority. The winner is the first team who scores a valid hit; if no hits are scored, the winning is the team with priority.

CADET MIXED COMPETITION

FORMULA FOR THE MIXED TEAM COMPETITION

The ranking of the teams is calculated by adding the results of the six best fencers of the individual competition. If a fencer did not take part in the competition, he or she will be allocated last place in the corresponding weapon + 1.

The competition will be run by using full direct elimination. All the places up to 16th place will be fought. From the 17th place, the teams will be ranked according to their entry position in the table.

One match per team draws up to 60 points, with relays at each multiple of 10 points; each fencer draws 2 x 5 touches or 2 x 3 minutes, with a one minute break between both matches.

VIDEO REFEREEING

Video will be used from T16. Each fencer has one possibility of recourse to Video per match. If the referee agrees with the fencer who requested the video, the latter will recover their right to recourse.

MIXED TEAM COMPETITION SELECTION PROCEDURE

The number of participating teams will depend on the national Federation registrations. All the teams have 6 fencers (men's and women's foil, épée and sabre).

The final composition of the teams must be announced before 7 pm the day preceding the team competition.

ORDER OF RELAYS DURING THE MIXED TEAM COMPETITION

During the mixed team competition, the women's and men's relays of the same weapon follow each other.

The order of the relays for the matches by teams will be determined by a sequence of two draws, which will take place on the day preceding the team competition in the presence of the Delegation Leaders of the relevant National Federations. The first draw will determine the gender (male/female) of the fencers for the first match of the first relay. The gender (male/female) then alternates from one match to another. The second draw will determine the order of the weapons (foil, épée or sabre).

INJURY DURING THE MIXED TEAM COMPETITION

In the event of withdrawal due to injury of one of the members of the team announced after 7 pm on the day preceding the competition, it is not possible for the team to appeal for a replacement. The team can continue with the competition, but the result of the bout in which the fencer would have fought will be zero touches for the forfeiting fencer and the maximum number of touches possible for his opponent.

If the fencer drew the last relay of the team match, the team must withdraw from the competition.

TRAINERS FOR THE MIXED TEAM COMPETITION

For each team, the Delegation leader must select a trainer for each team. During matches, only the chief trainer and the trainer selected for this weapon are allowed to be present in the team area. The name of the trainer of each team must be sent to the Technical Directorate before 7 pm on the day before the competition.

THE THREE WEAPONS

FOIL

The foil has a total length of 110cm and its blade is 90cm long. The total weight of the weapon must be less than 500g. The foil is a thrusting weapon only. Fencers can only score a hit by striking the point of their weapon on the defined target area of their opponent which is limited to the torso only. Non-valid hits also stop the bout, but are not counted. Foil is governed by the rules of right of way. The fencer who starts an attack has the right of way. In order to avoid being hit, the opposing foil fencer usually attempts to parry the attack and, if this is successful, riposte. To avoid being parried, the attacker may use several tactics, such as disengages or coupes, which are different ways to avoid the opponents' blade.

EPEE

The epee has a total length of 110cm and its blade is 90cm long. The total weight of the weapon must be less than 770g. As foil, the epee is a thrusting weapon only and the epee attack is with the point of the weapon only. At epee, the target area is the entire body, head to toe, including any clothing and equipment. Unlike in sabre and foil, in epee there are no right of way rules regarding attacks. Any hit which arrives is counted. Touches are awarded solely on the basis of which fencer makes a touch first, according to an electrical recording apparatus. Also, double-touches are allowed in epee, although the touches must occur within 40 milliseconds (1/25 of a second) of each other.

SABRE

The sabre has a total length of 105cm and its blade is 88cm long. The total weight of the weapon must be less than 500g. The sabre's basic difference from the two other weapons is that a hit can be made with the cutting edge and not only with the point. The target area consists of everything above the waist, including the head and both arms. As foil, sabre is governed by the rules of right of way. The fencer who starts an attack has the right of way. In order to avoid being hit, the opposing sabre fencer usually attempts to parry the attack and, if this is successful, riposte. To avoid being parried, the attacker may use several tactics, such as disengages or coupes, which are different ways to avoid the opponents' blade.

COMPETITION FORMULA

INDIVIDUALS

Qualification: The 16 fencers participating in the competition who are ranked highest in the current FIE ranking are exempt from the preliminary phase and enter directly the main 64 direct elimination table (DE). The competition starts with a qualifying pool (round-robin) of six or seven fencers. The results from the pools are used to establish the seeds for the next part of the competition. A pool bout ends when one of the fencers has scored five hits or when three minutes of effective fencing time have passed. Then fencer with the higher score is declared winner. If the score is tied after three minutes, there is given one minute extra time. One fencer will be randomly given priority. The winner will be the first fencer to score a valid hit. If no hits are scored, the winner is the fencer with priority. After the pool stage, the 16 best seeded fencers enter directly into the main 64 DE. The rest is seeded into preliminary DE from which another 32 fencers qualify for the main 64 DE.

DIRECT ELIMINATION

At foil and epee, all bouts in the individual events consist of three periods of three minutes, with a one-minute break between periods, or until one fencer has scored 15 hits. If the third period is completed before either fencer has scored 15 hits, the fencer with the most hits is declared the winner. At sabre, if one fencer has scored eight hits, there is a one minute break. Medals: There is no match for the bronze medal. The two fencers who lose the semi-final matches are placed equally third and are both awarded with the bronze medal.

TEAMS

In team events, all teams are directly seeded into the direct elimination table according to the team world ranking position. Each match consists of nine bouts to a maximum of 45 hits. Each bout lasts three minutes, or until one team's score has reached the next multiple of five hits: a score of five hits after the first bout, a score of 10 hits after the second bout, a score of 15 hits after the third bout, and so on. If the ninth bout is completed before either team has scored 45 hits, the team with the most hits is declared the winner. If the scores are tied after the ninth bout, there is a further one minute of fencing time. One fencer is randomly given priority. The winner is the first fencer to score a valid hit; if no hits are scored, the winner is the fencer with priority. Medals: There is a match for the bronze medal.

REFEREEING

FENCERS MAY ASK FOR A REVIEW OF A DECISION BY VIDEO-REFEREEING.

APPEALS:

- In individual events each fencer has two possible appeals in direct elimination bouts and one in a pool bout.
- Should the referee agree with fencer who appealed for video-refereeing, the fencer retains his right of appeal.
- In team events, the fencers have the right to a single appeal for video-refereeing per relay and are entitled to retain this right should the referee agree with this appeal.
- In case of an appeal for video-refereeing, the referee walks over to the video-consultant. They watch the video together and after consultation with the consultant delegate, the referee gives his final decision. No other review of the same action can be requested.
- If the fencer's scores are equal at the end of the match, for the decisive hit, the referee must use the video refereeing.
- The video-consultant may at any time request that the referee review his decision.
