“The Great Champions Among Us” – A new international CPE project.

The CPE is starting a new international interactive project called "The Great Champions Among Us", in which Olympic and world champions of our continent will participate together with athletes and coaches from the national fencing federations in the Pan-American continent.

Our stars and idols of the sport will tell us about their sports life, vivid episodes, and will also talk to us about their triumphs in the sports world, as well as interesting stories about incidents inside the Fencing world. The participants of the videoconference will be able to chat directly and make several questions to the great Champions.

This new innovative project will start on December 20 of 2020, and the first invited champion to our online event is the Olympic Champion Ruben Limardo from Venezuela, which will talk in his space called "Ruben Limardo, Olympic Champion, Path to Triumph".

The CPE will try to invite all the great fencers of our continent to our online events.

Joining Fencers from all Continental Confederations !!!

We hope that the initiative of the Pan-American Fencing Confederation could bring more attention to our sport, help our fencers to acquire new knowledge about the training and the preparation for the competitions based on the experiences of the great champions, which will bring to all athletes an additional incentive to win in their international competitions, and of course, to help unite the great Fencing family not only in the Pan-American continent, but in the whole world.

¡Together we will win!
