Carl Borack is an FIE Member of Honor and in the FIE Hall of Fame. He has served on the Promotion, Communication, & Marketing Commission (previously named the P&P Commission) for six terms and has been a prominent and productive voice in that role. His unique professional background complements his fencing history and has served the FIE well in his years on the commission.

He is an Olympian, having competed in the 1972 Olympic Games. He also competed in the 1965, '66, & '67 Junior World Championships; the 1966, '67, and '69 World Championships; and the 1967 & '71 Pan American Games, winning a gold in team epee and team foil. He has served in leadership roles as Captain and/or Chief of Mission on numerous Olympic and World Championships teams. He has attended all Summer Olympic Games since 1972 with the exception of Moscow in 1980 and Tokyo 2020 ('21).

He served on the U.S. Olympic Committee's Publicity Committee and was the Executive Vice President of USA Fencing.

Borack has had a long and successful career as an award-winning film producer. His feature films include, "The Big Fix," "The Final Season," "Shiloh," "Shiloh Season," "Saving Shiloh" and "Alice Upside Down." His corporate clients for which he created media include Mobil Corporation, CBS, CBS Records, Avon, Hoffman La Roche and Amblin Productions, to name a few. Most recently he produced and directed three fencing-related documentaries, "What is it About Fencing?," "A Path to Excellence," and "Bold Journey."

In the early '90s he took a respite from the movie business and was Director of the marketing group of the NFL Los Angeles Rams football team.
