Rome is the capital city and most populated comune (municipality) of Italy. It is also the administrative centre of the Lazio region and of the Metropolitan City of Rome. A special comune named Roma Capitale. Rome is the third most populous city in the European Union by population within city limits.

The Metropolitan City of Rome Capital, with a population of 4,223,885 residents, is the most populous metropolitan city in Italy. Its metropolitan area is the third-most populous within Italy. Rome is in the central-western portion of the Italian Peninsula, within Lazio, along the shores of the Tiber Valley. Vatican City (the smallest country in the world and headquarters of the worldwide Catholic Church under the governance of the Holy See) is an independent country inside the city boundaries of Rome, the only existing example of a country within a city. Rome is often referred to as the City of Seven Hills due to its geography, and as the "Eternal City". Rome is generally considered to be one of the cradles of Western civilization and Western Christian culture, and the centre of the Catholic Church.

Rome's history spans 28 centuries. While Roman mythology dates the founding of Rome at around 753 BC, the site has been inhabited for much longer, making it a major human settlement for over three millennia and one of the oldest continuously occupied cities in Europe.

In 2019, Rome was the 14th most visited city in the world, with 8.6 million tourists, the third most visited city in the European Union, and the most popular tourist destination in Italy. Its historic centre is listed by UNESCO as a World Heritage Site. The host city for the 1960 Summer Olympics, Rome is also the seat of several specialised agencies of the United Nations, such as the Food and Agriculture Organization, World Food Programme, International Fund for Agricultural Development and UN System Network on Rural Development and Food Security. The city also hosts the European Union (EU) Delegation to the United Nations (UN), Secretariat of the Parliamentary Assembly of the Union for the Mediterranean, headquarters of the World Farmers' Organisation, multi-country office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, Human Resources Office for International Cooperation of the United Nations Department of Economic and Social Affairs, headquarters of the International Labour Organization Office for Italy, headquarters of the WORLD BANK GROUP for Italy, Office for Technology Promotion and Investment in Italy under the United Nations Industrial Development Organization, Rome office of the United Nations Interregional Crime and Justice Research Institute, and support office of the United Nations Humanitarian Response Depot, as well as the headquarters of several Italian multinational companies such as Eni, Enel, TIM, Leonardo, and banks such as BNL. Numerous companies are based within Rome's EUR business district, such as the luxury fashion house Fendi located in the “Palazzo della Civiltà Italiana”. The presence of renowned international brands in the city has made Rome an important centre of fashion and design, and the Cinecittà Studios have been the set of many Academies Award–winning movies.
