The awarding of the 2010 World Junior/Cadet Championships to Novi Sad (SRB) has been postponed pending the completion of the candidature dossier.

Because of high level of costs involved in organising Junior World Championships combined with Cadet World Championships, the national federations asked for a final decision of the Congress regarding the separation of the two competitions. The cadet Championships would thus become continental events organised by the zonal confederations.

The city of Palermo (ITA) was awarded the organisation of the 2009 Congress.

The cities of Sintra (POR) and Bonn (GER) announced their candidature to organise the 2011 Congress.
