Outlet and Voltage Details

Voltage & Frequency

Standard supply in Wuxi (PRC) is 220V AC, 50Hz.

Plug / Outlet Type

Sockets accept Type A (two flat pins) and Type I (three flat pins, grounded — the Chinese/Australian standard).

Recommendations for International Participants

Bring a universal travel adapter; a limited number of adapters and power strips with mixed socket types will be available at the venue's media/technical center.

Most modern laptops and phone chargers support 100–240V and only need a plug adapter.

Equipment rated only at 110V (e.g., from North America or Japan) requires a step-down voltage converter — a plug adapter alone will not work and may cause damage.

The Organizing Committee is not liable for damage to personal electrical equipment caused by voltage or plug incompatibility. Please verify your device specifications before connecting.
