AGENDA

22 NOVEMBER 2026 – DAY 2

09:30	Thematic 1 : Governance and Integrity 15 Towards An A1 Rating For The FIE and Fencing Strong governance and integrity are essential to the credibility, legitimacy and long-term development of international fencing. This session will examine how the FIE can consolidate existing progress and move towards the highest standards of transparency, accountability and ethical leadership.
10:15	Thematic 2 : Refereeing 16 A New Era for Fencing Refereeing is central to sporting fairness, athlete confidence and the credibility of competition. This session will explore how education, harmonised interpretation, technology and transparent processes can support a modern, consistent and trusted refereeing system.
11:00	Coffee break
11:20	Thematic 3 : Global Promotion of Fencing 17 Maximising The value Of What Has Been Built Fencing has strong sporting traditions, global reach and compelling stories. This session will focus on turning those assets into greater visibility, relevance and value by presenting the sport more clearly, consistently and creatively to existing and new audiences.
12:05	Thematic 4 : Fencing Is Our Future 18 Strategic, Well-managed And Measurable Change Is An Opportunity—Not A Threat The future of fencing depends on the ability to preserve the sport's identity while adapting ingeniously to a changing environment. This concluding session will consider how shared ambition can be converted into realistic priorities, coordinated action and measurable progress.
